Have you ever bought a product that broke the next day? It's not fair, especially if it cost a lot of money! It's also bad for the manufacturer. Unhappy customers tell many people if a product isn't good quality!

Most manufacturers test their products carefully before selling them. Cars must pass safety tests. To test a car, they put dummies, which look like humans, inside the car. Then, they make the car crash. Crash tests show manufacturers what happens on impact.

Toys are tested, too. The 'torque test' twists toys until they break. The 'drop test' drops toys on the floor. Waterproof toys are dipped in water. Machines tear balloons. If something doesn't work, manufacturers have to fix the problem.

What happens when customers are unhappy with a product?

Safe Buys

Lots of the things we buy are tested for safety. That's good! Products should be safe. They should be safe for you and me.

When you're a customer, the products you buy shouldn't break. A manufacturer should try not to make mistakes.

Is this watch waterproof? It goes tick tock. Let's dip the watch in water! It's just a test to make sure everything is safe.

CHORUS

Quality is important. Products should be safe. A factory that makes things should test everything, just in case.

A dummy sits in a car. The car speeds up! Crash! Don't worry! It's just a test to make sure everything is safe.

GRAMMAR TR: B5

'Put your pen in your rucksack.' 'Don't break my toys.' Mum told me to put my pen in my rucksack. My brother told me not to break his toys.

They told me to look after it.

- Read. Your friends lent you a toy. Write their instructions about the toy. Circle the toy.
- 1. 'Look after it.'
- 2. 'Don't drop it.'
- 3. 'Don't tear its clothes.'
- 4. 'Don't twist its arms.'
- 5. 'Enjoy it.'

What about you? Imagine your friends want to use some of your things. Tell them what to do and what not to do.

Be an Ad Detective!

Every day we see adverts - on TV, in magazines, on websites, in the street and on our computer screens. We hear them, too. But often we don't notice them. A famous film producer once showed over 100 products in his film, but most people didn't notice them!

Are you an ad detective? Can you understand the messages advertisers send you? To be an ad detective, it is useful to know how ads work. Let's look at some typical advertising techniques.

- 1. Group pressure: An ad shows lots of young people, each with their own mobile phone. Message: Everyone has a mobile phone. You need one, too!
- 2. Association: Everyone looks happy and healthy in the ad. They're cool and beautiful, too. Message: If you buy the product, you will be happy and cool like these people.
- 3. Testimonials: A famous athlete says he wears a certain brand of trainers. Message: You'll be good at sports, too, if you buy these trainers. Or, because a famous athlete wears these trainers, they're a product you can trust.
- 4. Repetition: These ads mention the product many times and say wonderful things about it. Message: You need to remember the product.
- 5. Time pressure: These ads use expressions like 'Buy now! Half price this week.' Message: You should buy the product quickly before you miss a great opportunity.

Adverts are interesting, but you can make headline better decisions about what to buy when you know these techniques! Try these tips: read product reviews, compare products, test products in the store and, if you are not sure, wait 24 hours visual before buying. You may decide that you don't really need or want the product!

Write the number.

- d.
- e. _

1. advertisement 2. decide 3. producer 4. repeat

Work with a friend. Look at the tips in the last paragraph. Discuss. Which is:

- 1. the most useful tip?
- 2. a tip you already use?
- 3. a tip you would never use?
- 4. a tip you would like to try?

I think the most useful tip is to wait 24 hours.

Read. Re-read the text. Find the technique used in each ad below.

a. 3 A popular hip-hop singer is advertising some clothes.

Summer holidays end next week. Rucksacks are half price this week.

You hear the name of the product seven times in a 30-second ad.

Some friends are playing outdoors. They're all wearing the same trainers.

_ Young people are cycling outdoors. They're laughing. The sun is shining.

Product Reviews

In a product review, you help the customer decide what to buy. It is not an advert, so you can describe both the positive and negative aspects of the product. To emphasise the good points, use expressions like above all, particularly, of course, in fact, really, the truth is and in addition.

Read. Read the review. Underline the expressions that the writer uses to emphasise the positive features of the rucksack.

Carry your books in style

This is a good quality rucksack for school children aged 11 to 13 who need to carry a lot of books. It is made of strong material that will survive a lot of wear and tear. In fact, we tested it and it doesn't tear easily. In addition, the material is waterproof, so children's books won't get wet in the rain.

We particularly like this rucksack because it doesn't weigh a lot. Of course, leather rucksacks may look cooler, but they are heavier. Carrying a heavy rucksack is bad for your back, so the truth is, we prefer this one.

Above all, we like that the rucksack comes in many colours and designs. The only problem? The straps are a little short. So we suggest that you try it on in the shop before you decide. We give this rucksack four stars.*

Write. Review a product. Write about why you like it and make a recommendation. Use expressions of emphasis for the good points.

Share your work with a small group. Listen and make notes.

Be aware of why you are making decisions.

- Work in a small group. Think of the things you own. Why did you or your parent buy them? How did you feel when you bought them? How did you feel a month later?
- Have you ever bought something just because your friends have it? Why? Write some examples.

I bought a computer game because my friend said it was good. I didn't enjoy it!

Work with another group. Share your examples. Are they the same or different? Which product was a good idea to buy? Which one was a bad idea? Discuss why.

20 Make a collage of ads.

- 1. Choose a product. Cut out advertisements that sell your product.
- 2. Analyse the ads.
 - a. Who is responsible for the ad? What are they advertising?
 - b. Who is the advertiser selling the product to?
 - c. What techniques does the ad use?
 - d. What does the ad say or suggest about the product?
- 3. Make a collage using the ads.

I chose mobile phone ads. This is an ad for adults.
