

One day, Country Mouse gets a phone call from his cousin, City Mouse.
City Mouse says, 'Cousin, please come and visit me.'

'OK!' says Country Mouse. 'I will walk to your house.
Can you give me directions, please?'
'You can't walk to Paris!' says City Mouse. 'You have to go by train.'

Facts About Museums

Art Museums

Art museums have paintings and sculptures. These are some of the things you might see in an art museum.

12

The Mona Lisa is one of the most famous paintings in the world. Leonardo da Vinci painted it in around 1503. Over six million people see the Mona Lisa each year.

Little Dancer Aged Fourteen is a sculpture by Edgar Degas from 1881. The sculpture shows a young dancer in a dress with a ribbon in her hair.

Natural History Museums

Natural history museums show things from the natural world, like animals, plants and minerals. These are some of the things you might see in a natural history museum.

Many natural history museums have mummies of people who died thousands of years ago.

The T. rex dinosaur lived a very long time ago. It was about 12 metres (40 feet) long and was as big as a bus.

13