READING

6 You are going to read an article about urban explorers (urbexers). Write three questions you'd like to find out about them. Does the article answer your questions?

7 Choose the correct ending to complete the sentences.

- The article begins by talking about options for tourists because:
  - they are good examples of urban exploration.
  - they are very different from what urbexers do.
  - the writer wants to recommend some ways of exploring cities.
- The places that urban explorers visit are:
  - always underground.
  - not used anymore.
  - not usually attractive to many people.

10 How do you get to know a city you've never been to before? For most people, the typical tourist options are enough. Take a bus tour to see the sights or, if you're feeling energetic, consider a walking tour. To get a taste of city life, use public transportation.

But there are people who want more than the standard tourist options. They are urbexers—urban explorers. They're interested in discovering parts of the city we normally see as less beautiful, the places tourists are not supposed to see: ghost subway stations that have been closed for years, shopping malls and amusement parks at night, abandoned* factories, construction sites, tunnels, and railroads. It's not for everybody. You can't be scared of heights or small spaces and you have to be willing to take risks.

Bradley Garrett is one of them. Urbexers don't follow the same routes as everyone else: "I've been to Paris six times and I've seen more of the city underground than I have above ground," he says. "If somebody asked me for a good restaurant, I'd have no idea."

It wasn't until Bradley and his urbexer friends had climbed to the top of London's tallest skyscraper, the Shard, and had managed to visit all of the city's fourteen abandoned subway stations that the police stopped them from exploring as a group. Bradley was studying urbexers for a book he was writing when they had to stop.

Bradley's best experience as an urbexer was in Chicago with friends when they climbed the Legacy Tower, a 72-story skyscraper. "We were sitting on a rooftop looking up at this building when someone suggested we try to get up. So we walked in and just got in the elevator after some residents had opened the door. When we made it up to the roof, it was the most incredible view I've ever seen."

Why do urbexers do it? Many enjoy the excitement of putting themselves in danger. Some enjoy the feeling they get from being alone in abandoned places. "I feel I'm the only person in the world," says Zhao Yang, a 29-year-old Chinese urbexer who explores places where people used to work, like old industrial sites and abandoned hospitals. Like many urbexers, Zhao is an avid photographer who takes his smartphone to record what he sees, and, like many, he also writes a blog about his experiences, but he prefers to explore alone.

This can be dangerous, of course, but if you're interested in exploring city spaces, there are safe ways of doing it. For example, it's easy to look at a map, identify an area that is new to you, and go there. Another way is to try to get lost in your own town. Or you could just set off for a walk without planning your route. Who knows what you might find!

3 Bradley Garrett:

- knows Paris very well.
- doesn't like high places.
- wouldn't be a very good guide for traditional tourists.

4 Bradley and his friends:

- weren't allowed to go to London's abandoned underground stations.
- can't explore together anymore.
- didn't climb the Shard.

5 Garrett's trip to the top of the Legacy Tower was:

- easy.
- lonely.
- well planned.

6 Zhao Yang:

- investigates abandoned factories.
- explores with friends.
- doesn't want to tell anyone about his experiences.

7 The article ends by:

- describing more activities that urban explorers do.
- recommending other ways of exploring cities.
- explaining the health benefits of urban exploration.

CRITICAL THINKING Selecting information

Writers have to think about the kind of information that will interest their readers.

8 Read the Critical Thinking box. Which questions does the article answer about urbexers and urban exploration?

- Does urban exploration happen all over the world?
- How long have people been exploring in this way?
- How many people do it?
- If I want to explore my local urban area, what can I do?
- Is the word "urbexer" in the dictionary?
- What are some of the stories that urbexers have?
- Why is urban exploration attractive to some people?
- What kind of places do urbexers visit?
- What personal qualities do urbexers need?

9 Work in groups. Discuss the questions.

- Did the article answer all your questions in Activity 6?
- What other information would you like to learn?
- How could you find out the answers to the questions that weren't answered?

10 Do you think the author did a good job? Did he choose the information that was interesting to you?

Sydney Opera House and the city, Australia

2C Sydney on $20

GRAMMAR Narrative forms

- 1 Work in pairs. Can you remember Bradley Garrett's adventure at the Legacy Tower? Retell the story using these words.

rooftop	the elevator	view
---------	--------------	------

- 2 Check your ideas in Activity 1 with the article on page 25.
- 3 Choose the correct options to complete the sentences in the Grammar box.

Narrative forms

- a It wasn't until Bradley and his friends had climbed / were climbing to the top of the Shard and used to manage / had managed to visit all of the city's abandoned underground stations that the police stopped / were stopping them from exploring as a group.
- b Bradley studied / was studying urbexers for a book he wrote / was writing when they had to stop.
- c "We had sat / were sitting on a rooftop when someone suggested / used to suggest we try to get up the Legacy Tower. So we walked / were walking in and just had gotten / got in the elevator after some residents had opened / were opening the door."
- d Zhao Yang explores places where people were working / used to work, like old industrial sites and abandoned hospitals.

Check page 130 for more information and practice.

- 4 Read the sentences in the Grammar box and complete these rules with simple past, past continuous, past perfect, or used to.

When we tell stories or talk about actions or events in the past:

- we use the _____ to describe an incomplete action or event when another action happened. The actions are often connected with when, while, or as. We also use it to give background information. It is not used with stative verbs (know, love, etc.).
  - we usually use the _____ to describe completed actions in the past. If actions happen one after another, we use this tense.
  - we use the _____ to emphasize that one past action finished before another past action. The actions are often connected with after, before, and already.
  - we usually use _____ to talk about situations, habits, and routines that were true in the past but are not true anymore.
- 5 Read about freeganism. What are the advantages of living like this? Would you like to live like this? What are the disadvantages?

Freeganism is a way of living and traveling that costs almost nothing. It's simply using your skills so you don't have to pay for things. People who practice freeganism are called "freegans," and they try to buy as little as possible because they want to save money and reduce their impact on the environment. They choose to eat food that has been thrown away and find alternatives to sleeping in hotels and paying for transportation when they travel.

- 6 Becky Khalil was a freegan in Australia for some time. Choose the correct option to complete what she says about traveling as a freegan in Sydney.

I (1) used to think / was thinking that Australia was a really expensive place, and the first time I (2) went / had gone there, I worked to pay for my living expenses. But while I (3) had stayed / was staying in Australia last time, I (4) found / used to find another way to live. I (5) used to use / had already used my working visa on my first trip, so I couldn't get a job this time. To make things worse, someone (6) was stealing / had stolen all my money during a train ride. So I (7) became / had become a freegan. Before, I (8) used to buy / was buying too much food and threw a lot of it away, but this time I (9) had eaten / ate leftover food from friends and shops, like day-old bread. I (10) didn't spend / hadn't spent anything on accommodations, less than $100 on travel, and less than $20 on food for six weeks!

- 7 Complete the rest of Becky's story with the best form of the verbs.

Most of the time, friends of mine (1) _____ (let) me sleep on their couches, but before my trip I (2) _____ (contact) a company that organizes "house-sitting" jobs, so sometimes I took care of houses when the owners were on vacation. To save money on bus fares, I (3) _____ (get) rides with people I knew, and while I (4) _____ (travel) around the country, I usually decided to camp. Once I went to sleep under the stars because I (5) _____ (be) too tired to put my tent up. Finding cheap or free food was much easier than I (6) _____ (expect) it to be. Even in winter, I enjoyed it because I (7) _____ (live) with other freegans and we (8) _____ (become) friends and helped each other. At the end of each day, stores gave us anything they (9) _____ (not sell). Believe it or not, we (10) _____ (eat) extremely well!

- 8 PRONUNCIATION Used to

Listen to these sentences. How is used to pronounced? Practice reading the sentences. 11

- Our grandparents never used to throw their food away.
- Did people use to travel a lot when your parents were young?
- A Do you enjoy traveling by plane?
B I used to, but not anymore.

- 9 Complete the sentences in your own words. Then work in pairs and compare your sentences.

- Before this lesson I didn't know...
- When I was younger, I used to...
- I didn't use to... (but I do now).
- The last time I... was when...
- I didn't spend any money when...
- I bought... while I was...

- 10 Prepare notes about a trip you have taken that was memorable in some way. Use these questions to help you plan what you are going to say.

- Where did you go? Did you use to go to the same destination regularly, or was this the first time?
- How did you travel?
- When did you make the trip?
- Who did you go with?
- What memorable things happened? What were you doing when they happened?
- How did you feel about the trip in general?

- 11 CHOOSE Choose one of the following activities.

Writing strategies

Writing a story

Use a paragraph plan like this when you write a story:

Paragraph 1: Set the scene

Where does the story start?

Who is the story about?

When does the story take place?

Paragraphs 2 and 3: Main events

What happened?

How did you feel?

What happened next?

Paragraph 4: The end

What happened in the end?

How did you or other people feel?

What do you remember most about the events?

Koh Tao is a beautiful island in Thailand. Its name means "Turtle Island."
