

Dear Educator,

National Geographic Learning is excited to welcome your school to myNGconnect! As a class studying National Geographic Reach for Reading, you and your students will find a world of digital resources on myNGconnect to make learning more interesting, more engaging, and to put it simply...more fun!

MyNGconnect is an online portal for students and teachers hosted by National Geographic Learning, the publisher of the program chosen by your school or district. You and your students have access to the website from school, from your local library, from home...anywhere he or she can access the internet!

During the school year, you and your students will enjoy many rich resources including the digital library, video clips, Interactive Whiteboard Activities, and games, as well as connections to National Geographic resources. And rest assured all content is age appropriate and integrated with the instructional goals of your school and district.

The world of excitement begins with myNGconnect when you and your students open a browser and visit www.myNGconnect.com.

Once at the site, you should click on GO, next to For Educators (students should click on Go next to For Students), and enter your user name and password. Here is a reminder of your unique, secure user name and password (unless you are a returning teacher and have already changed your password).

User Name _____

Password _____

Once you log in, you will be taken to the home page of National Geographic Learning myNGconnect.com

Navigation is easy; just click on a resource or use the arrow and select from the drop-down menu.

In addition to the many wonderful learning tools available to you at NGL.Cengage.com/support, including on demand tutorials and the quick start guide, feel free to reach out to your Digital Solutions Coordinator at schoolscoursecare@cengage.com with any questions.

We're delighted to be part of your child's educational journey.

Sincerely,

The National Geographic Learning Team
