

PROJECT

Write about a misconception people may have of you, your community, or your country. Write something that disproves this misconception. Use these questions to help structure your response.

What is the misconception?

How does it make you, your community, or people in your country feel?

What evidence proves the misconception is wrong?

How can you inform people of this misconception?
