Professional rock climber Chris Sharma grips a small indentation in Ceues, France.
Can you describe an activity or sport that you enjoy?
Using Adjectives

When you write, you can make a sentence much more interesting if you add descriptive words. These descriptive words are called adjectives. They describe nouns.

- A noun is the name of a person, place, thing, or idea.
  - student, doctor, city, park, book, pencil, and love
- An adjective is a word that describes a noun.
  - good, busy, new, crowded, green, heavy, and beautiful

Word Order: Adjective + Noun

Good writers avoid writing too many simple sentences about one subject. When you have two short sentences about the same noun with an adjective, you can combine the sentences by putting the adjective before the noun. This will make your writing more interesting.

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>noun adj. I have a book. It is heavy.</td>
<td>adj. noun I have a book.</td>

<tr>
<td>noun adj. This is my car. It is new.</td>
<td>adj. noun This is my car.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Marco goes to a college. The college is excellent.</td>
<td>Marco goes to an excellent college.</td>

<tr>
<td>adj. noun Rachel draws small pictures. She draws ink pictures.</td>
<td>adj. adj. noun Rachel draws small ink pictures.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

IMPORTANT: Make sure you put the adjective before the noun, not after.

✗ I have a car red with a top black.
✓ I have a red car with a black top.

✗ We ate a salad green with potatoes fried.
✓ We ate a green salad with fried potatoes.

IMPORTANT: Adjectives do not have a plural form to describe plural nouns.

✗ There are rares books in the library.
✓ There are rare books in the library.

✗ Do you like populars songs?
✓ Do you like popular songs?

There is more information about order of adjectives on page 239 in the Brief Writer’s Handbook.
ACTIVITY 1  Editing: Nouns and Adjectives

Combine the related sentences into one sentence. You will have to eliminate a few words. Remember to use a capital letter at the beginning and a period at the end of each sentence.

1. Rob owns a car. The car is red.

   Rob owns a red car.

2. I do not like this weather. The weather is humid.

3. Paris is a city in France. This city is beautiful.

4. Ali has a job. The job is part-time.

5. They like to drink soda. The soda is diet.

6. Nina reads folk tales. They are international.

7. My mother grows roses. The roses are big. The roses are beautiful.

8. Juan works for a company. The company is small. The company is independent.

9. My grandparents live in a town. It is a farming town. The town is small.

10. Sharon rents a house on Smith Street. The house is white. The house is tiny.
Grammar for Writing

Word Order: Be + Adjective

If the main verb of a sentence is be, the adjective can come after the verb.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Subject</th>
<th>Be</th>
<th>Adjective(s)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The boys</td>
<td>are</td>
<td>young.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I</td>
<td>am</td>
<td>sleepy.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>That house</td>
<td>is</td>
<td>big and green.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Word Order: Linking Verb + Adjective

The verb be is a linking verb. A linking verb connects the subject to the adjective that comes after it. These verbs are often (but not always) related to your five natural senses: sight, taste, touch, smell, and hearing.

If the main verb of a sentence is a linking verb, the adjective can come after the verb.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Subject</th>
<th>Linking Verb</th>
<th>Adjective</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Justin</td>
<td>looks</td>
<td>ill.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The grapes</td>
<td>taste</td>
<td>delicious.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The hot water</td>
<td>feels</td>
<td>good on my feet.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>These flowers</td>
<td>smell</td>
<td>really sweet.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sohee’s plan</td>
<td>sounds</td>
<td>interesting.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tony and Ron</td>
<td>seem</td>
<td>very nervous today.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Many linking verbs can also be actions verbs. When a linking verb is followed by an adjective, it does not have any action.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Action Verb</th>
<th>Linking Verb (no action)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>My mother tastes</td>
<td>The soup tastes good.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>her soup.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Activity 2: Practicing Adjectives

Underline the 11 adjectives in the paragraph. (The numbers in parentheses on the left side of the paragraph tell you how many adjectives are in each line.) Then circle the linking verbs. The first adjective has been underlined for you.

The Title of a Paragraph

What is the title of this textbook? Look on the front cover. Write the title here.

What is the title of Example Paragraph 6 on page 37? Write the title here.

A title gives the reader information about what is in a book, magazine, song, movie, or paragraph. Here are some rules to follow when you write a title for your paragraphs.

Rule #1: A good title is usually short. Sometimes it is only one word. Titanic and Help are titles.

Rule #2: A good title is usually not a complete sentence. Some examples of paragraph titles in this book are Staying Healthy, A World Traveler, and An Old Family Photo.

Rule #3: A good title catches a reader’s interest. It tells the reader about the main topic, but it does not tell about everything in the paragraph. A Long Flight, An Important Invention, and My First Car are all titles of paragraphs in this book. Each one gives you a good idea of what the paragraph will be about. However, it does not give you all the information.

Rule #4: A good title also follows special capitalization rules. Always capitalize the first letter of the first word. Only capitalize the first letter of the important words in the title. Do not capitalize a preposition or an article unless it is the first word.

Rule #5: A title never has a period at the end.
Activity 5 Working with Titles

Each of these titles breaks at least one of the rules listed on page 42. Rewrite each one correctly. Be prepared to share your answers with your classmates and explain which rule (or rules) the incorrect title breaks.

Look at the first line of Example Paragraph 7 on page 39. How is the formatting different from the other lines in the paragraph?

Look at the first line of Example Paragraph 8 on page 40. Do you see how the first line is also moved in? This is called indenting. It is important to indent the first line of every paragraph because it tells the reader that a new paragraph is beginning.
Activity 6  Copying a Paragraph

On the lines below, copy the six sentences about ice cream from Activity 13 on page 16 (Unit 1). Be sure to indent the first line. Use correct punctuation at the end of each sentence. Give this paragraph a title. When you finish, read your new paragraph.

The topic sentence:

- is usually the first sentence in the paragraph
- should not be too specific or too general

If a paragraph does not have a topic sentence, the reader may be confused because the ideas will not be organized clearly. Make sure every paragraph has a topic sentence!
Activity 8  Practicing Topic Sentences

Read each paragraph and the three topic sentences below it. Choose the best topic sentence and write it on the lines. Then read the paragraph again. Make sure that the topic sentence gives the main idea for the whole paragraph. Remember to indent.

Example Paragraph 11

Make sure that the topic sentence gives the main idea for the whole paragraph. Be sure to indent! (NOTE: If you want a challenge, cover the four topic sentences, and try to write your own. Is your topic sentence similar to the correct topic sentence?)

It may take a long time to move the beds because the beds are so big. However, Amy and I are not worried because our strong helpers will make the move easy!

Parts of a Paragraph: The Body

Every good paragraph must have sentences that support the topic sentence. These supporting sentences are called the body of a paragraph.

The supporting sentences:

• give more information, such as support, details, or examples, about the topic sentence
• must be related to the topic sentence
• should not include ideas that are unrelated or unconnected to the topic sentence

A good body can make your paragraph stronger, so make sure EVERY sentence in your body is related to the topic sentence.

One mistake that many writers make is writing sentences that are not related to the topic sentence. Be sure to cut out any unrelated or unconnected ideas.
Activity 13 Working with the Body of a Paragraph

Read each paragraph carefully. Underline the topic sentence. In each paragraph, one supporting sentence does not belong because it is not directly connected to the topic sentence. Cross out the unrelated sentence.

Example Paragraph 20

Keeping Score in American Football

Keeping score in American football is more difficult than keeping score in soccer. In soccer, each goal is worth one point. For example, if a team scores five goals in a game, then the team’s score is five points. In American football, the scoring system is different. When a player carries the ball across the end zone, he scores a touchdown. A touchdown is worth six points. When a player kicks the football between the goal posts, that team gets one point or three points. Another sport that has easy scoring is basketball. It is definitely harder to keep score for American football than it is for soccer.

Example Paragraph 21

Making Chili

Chili is an easy dish to prepare. Fried chicken is also easy to prepare. To make chili, cut up one large onion. Then fry them in a little vegetable oil. You can add fresh garlic and some diced chili peppers. When the onions are soft, add one pound of ground beef. Stir the onions and beef until they are fully cooked. Sprinkle one tablespoon of red chili powder on top. Next, add four cups of diced tomatoes, one cup of water, and one can of red beans. Finally, add salt and pepper. Cover the saucepan and cook over low heat for about one hour. If you follow this simple recipe, you will have a delicious meal!
Celsius and Fahrenheit Temperatures

Changing temperatures from Celsius to Fahrenheit is not difficult. First, multiply the Celsius temperature by 9. Then divide this answer by 5. When you finish, add 32 degrees to your answer. The result is the temperature in Fahrenheit. Many countries report temperatures in Celsius, but the United States uses Fahrenheit. For example, if the Celsius temperature is 20, you multiply 20 by 9. Then you divide the answer, 180, by 5. The result is 36. Next, add 32, and you have the correct Fahrenheit temperature. Now you know how to change a temperature from Celsius to Fahrenheit.

Grammar for Writing

Possessive Adjectives

When you want to talk about something that belongs to someone or something, you use a possessive adjective. A possessive adjective answers questions related to ownership such as Whose house? Whose books? and Whose television?

Like regular adjectives, a possessive adjective always comes before the noun that it describes.

Activity 14  Using Possessive Adjectives

Fill in each blank with the correct possessive adjective.

Example Paragraph 23

Ashley and Julia have the same friends. 5 Friends go to the same school. 6 Brother is in college. 7 Major is business administration. Kate's brother and sisters are all very different, but she loves 8 siblings very much.

ACTIVITY 16 Working with the Body of a Paragraph

Read each paragraph carefully. In each paragraph, there are two sentences that do not belong. Put parentheses () around the two unrelated sentences.

Example Paragraph 25

The New States

Four U.S. states begin with the word new. New Hampshire, New Jersey, and New York are in the Northeast, but New Mexico is in the Southwest. Arizona is also in the Southwest. New Hampshire is a small state with just over one million people. New Jersey is also a small state, but its population is almost nine million people. The most well-known of the new states is New York. With twenty million people, its population is the largest of all the new states. Finally, there is New Mexico. It is the largest in size of these four states, but its population is really quite small with a little over two million people. There are no states that begin with the word old. Although all these states begin with new, they are all very different.
An Incredible Neighbor

My neighbor Mrs. Wills is an amazing person. She is 96 years old. My grandmother lived to be 87. Mrs. Wills lives alone, and she takes care of herself. In the morning, she works in her beautiful garden. She also does all of her own cooking. She does not like to cook rice. She cleans her own house. She even puts her heavy garbage can by the street for trash collection. She pulls it slowly to the curb, and she goes up and down the steps to her door without help. I hope to have that much energy and ability when I am 96 years old.

My Office

I keep paper files in its drawers. On the right side of the room, there are two beautiful bookcases. My father makes bookcases and other wood furniture. They are full of books, magazines, and computer software. There is also a telephone and a fax machine on a small table next to my closet. I have trouble remembering my fax number. All my office supplies are in it. I enjoy my office very much.

Example Paragraph 27

I keep paper files in its drawers. On the right side of the room, there are two beautiful bookcases. My father makes bookcases and other wood furniture. Parts of a Paragraph: The Concluding Sentence

In addition to a topic sentence and body, every good paragraph has a concluding sentence. The concluding sentence ends the paragraph with a final thought.

The concluding sentence:

• often gives a summary of the information in the paragraph
• often gives information that is similar to the information in the topic sentence
• can be a suggestion, opinion, or prediction
• should not give any new information about the topic

Look at the topic sentences and concluding sentences from a few paragraphs in this unit.
