

Science Bookroom

ENGLISH
AND DUAL LANGUAGE
AVAILABLE

Focus on student science success with this special combination of programs to improve science content and literacy skills for all levels of learners.

- Build disciplinary literacy skills for students of varying reading abilities
- Supplement science content through differentiation and National Geographic visuals
- Inspire ALL readers to improve literacy skills and gain key science content knowledge

The Science Bookroom includes content from all of the following programs for grades K–2, and grades 3–5. This comprehensive solution is available in English and Dual Language options.

Grades K–2

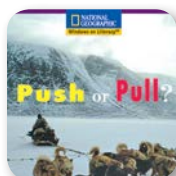

National Geographic Science

A core science program which includes leveled readers to help build literacy skills across content areas.

- Build reading and writing skills in the science content area
- Target varying student reading abilities with three levels of readers
- Increase science comprehension using key vocabulary and visuals

Print Components (English)

Selected Explore On Your Own readers
Selected Become An Expert readers

Language, Literacy, & Vocabulary!—Windows On Literacy

Engaging, leveled informational texts that build a strong foundation for literacy success and make grade-level content accessible.

- Comprehension strategies and fluency
- Scaffolded instruction that meets the needs of diverse learners
- Introduce grade-level science vocabulary

Print Components (English/Spanish)

Nonfiction Science Classroom Set

National Geographic Explorer Magazine Program

Provides grade-level science content delivered monthly at various reading levels.

- Inspire curiosity and invite critical thinking at multiple reading levels
- Improve literacy skills with increasing text complexity in each issue
- Explore informational texts with student-centered articles

Print and Digital Components (English/Spanish)

Explorer Magazine print or Interactive App 1-year subscription (with option to extend)

Grades 3–5

National Geographic Ladders Common Core Readers

Science and social studies content with differentiated informational text readers focused on literacy development.

- 100% Coverage of Common Core Standards for Reading Literature, Reading Informational Text, and Writing
- Compelling selections utilizing National Geographic visuals
- Differentiation with a Shared Experience

Print Components (English/Spanish)

Ladders Common Core Readers Classroom Set (8 titles per grade; 4 reading levels in English, 1 level in Spanish)

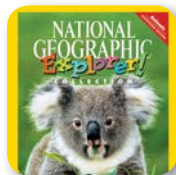

National Geographic Ladders Science

Support literacy standards with differentiated readers that engage students with high-interest science topics.

- Meet varying abilities with three reading levels of the same content
- Inspire students to engage in texts with high interest topics
- Increase science content literacy with accessible images and visuals

Print Components (English/Spanish)

Ladders Science Classroom Set (12 titles per grade; 3 reading levels in English, 1 level in Spanish)

National Geographic Explorer Book Collection

Nonfiction books that capture the fascinating content and dynamic visual energy of the National Geographic Explorer magazines.

- Build nonfiction literacy skills and essential content-area knowledge
- Meet the differentiated instructional needs of your learners
- Develop academic vocabulary and visual literacy

Print Components (English/Spanish)

Selected Explorer Book Collection titles for each grade

National Geographic Explorer Magazine Program

See details in Grades K–2 above.