

New Words

Part 1

assumption

When the dog wagged its tail, the boy made the assumption that the dog was friendly.

capable

Because she studied, she was capable of passing her test.

diverge

This hiking trail has two paths that diverge in different directions.

encounter

We encountered some problems at the start of our science project.

exclude

I exclude nuts from the recipe because I am allergic to them.

figure out

She figured out that if she saved her chore money, then she could go to the movies.

New Words

Part 1 (continued)

optional

At our school, learning to play an instrument is an optional activity that you can choose.

potential

The kids have potential to become great basketball players one day.

reputation

She had the reputation of being the best at math in the class.

resistance

The cat showed resistance when it refused to go outside.

Part 2

associate

She associated with the new girl in school when she ate lunch with her.

New Words

Part 2 (continued)

awareness

They used their awareness of traffic and safety rules to cross the street.

conform

In some schools, all students must conform to a dress code by wearing a uniform.

confront

He confronted his fear of public speaking when he gave the speech in front of the class.

intent

The student studies hard with the intent of passing a difficult test.

interaction

This is an interaction between three friends.

involve

Winning a baseball game may involve speed, strength, and teamwork.

New Words

Part 2 (continued)

preservation

The preservation of culture is important, and that is why people celebrate certain holidays.

sensitive

She had a sensitive nature and didn't like seeing anyone or anything in pain.

tolerance

He showed tolerance when he took off his baseball cap during the ceremony.

New Words

Part 1

asset

When you are hiking, a compass is a helpful asset that shows direction.

camouflage

People use camouflage to help them hide when they hunt.

convince

The kids will convince their mother to agree with their idea.

deception

The white moth on the white tree bark caused a visual deception so we could not see the moth.

duplicate

The fish duplicated the movement of the plant and blended into the background.

emerge

The sun will soon emerge from behind the dark clouds.

New Words

Part 1 (continued)

ensure

This girl uses a watch to ensure that she meets her friend on time.

mimic

The mockingbird mimics the sounds of other birds.

parasite

The fleas on the dog were parasites.

resemblance

The twins share a strong resemblance because their features are very similar.

variation

The temperature showed extreme variation when it snowed in the morning and was sunny in the afternoon.

Part 2

concentrate

He must concentrate when he glues the tiny pieces together.

New Words

Part 2 (continued)

exhaust

He exhausted his supply of water, because his water bottle was empty.

intense

The intense wind made the tree tops bend over.

motivation

My motivation for studying is to get good grades.

necessity

Food and water are the most basic necessities of life.

overcome

If you used to be afraid of dogs but now you like them, you have overcome your fear.

reliance

All humans have a reliance on food.

resilience

Plants show resilience by growing in places with little or no soil.

New Words

Part 2 (continued)

resolve

After seeing the litter, the kids resolve to pick up trash once a week.

resourceful

She was very resourceful when she used the old egg carton for her art project.

New Words

Part 1

analytical

A scientist does an analytical study of the liquid by separating it and studying each part.

archaeological

He found a fragment of an ancient Egyptian jug on his first archaeological dig.

artifact

The jar was an artifact from Hatshepsut's reign.

chronological

Historians use a chronological timeline to chart the events in ancient Egypt.

civilization

Greece has a very old civilization.

depict

The artist's drawing depicts the woman.

New Words

Part 1 (continued)

dynasty

When Rome took over Egypt, Cleopatra's dynasty ended.

pharaoh

Ramses II is often called the greatest pharaoh of ancient Egypt.

powerful

The powerful judge makes decisions in a courtroom.

representation

The statue is a representation of an ancient Egyptian king.

reveal

The magician reveals the rabbit that was in his hat.

tomb

The discovery of King Tut's tomb was very important to historians and archaeologists.

New Words

Part 2

chamber

The Egyptians had burial chambers filled with gold.

command

The pharaoh commanded the people to build a new pyramid.

consider

The boy considers which snack to choose.

contribute

Each student will contribute one dollar to help people in need.

hieroglyphics

Hieroglyphics were written all over the walls in the Egyptian tombs.

impact

The creative science teacher had a positive impact on her students.

New Words

Part 2 (continued)

peer

The archaeologists peered into the tomb to see the treasure.

perspective

The students discussed their different perspectives about the issues.

plunder

The robbers plundered the tomb and left nothing but broken jars behind them.

procession

Ancient Egyptians held funeral processions when important people died.

significant

Finding King Tut's tomb was a significant discovery for archaeologists.

New Words

Part 1

appeal

The student made an appeal to his teacher for help with a project.

dependent

Babies are dependent on their parents for everything.

effective

An umbrella is effective for keeping dry in the rain.

endangered

The ivory-billed woodpecker is an example of an endangered animal.

extinct

The dodo bird became extinct because people hunted too many over time.

factor

Heavy rains were a factor in the terrible flooding.

policy

They followed the policy to keep their school clean.

New Words

Part 1 (continued)

protection

Helmets give protection to the bikers' heads.

recover

She recovered her health after having the flu.

sustain

The runner drinks lots of water to sustain her during the race.

thrive

With lots of care, plants can thrive.

Part 2

advocate

The dentist advocates brushing your teeth twice a day.

deforestation

Uncontrolled deforestation almost destroyed the redwoods.

New Words

Part 2 (continued)

ecological

The new ecological plan to preserve the wetlands would save many animals.

intervene

She intervenes when her sons argue.

landscape

She admired the landscape of the mountains in the distance.

management

The lemonade stand was successful under her management.

obligation

It is the boy's obligation to take care of the dog.

participate

The students participate on a sports team.

New Words

Part 2 (continued)

regulate

They regulated how many people could enter the zoo so that it wouldn't become overcrowded.

utilize

The gardeners utilize a shovel to collect leaves.